++ Valid for broadcast between 0600 and 1800

Headline:
Dry with bright or sunny spells.

Today:
Plenty of sunshine in the east through morning, but cloudier in the west. Cloud generally bubbling up by afternoon. Still bright or sunny spells and remaining largely dry, but the odd isolated shower is possible for eastern areas. Feeling warm. Maximum temperature 16 deg C (61 deg F).

Tonight:
It will stay largely dry with occasional clear intervals overnight, but on the whole there will be quite a lot of cloud. A milder night than recently and staying frost-free. Minimum temperature 3 deg C (37 deg F).

Wednesday:
Quite a cloudy start, but dry with some hazy sunshine. Light rain and scattered showers developing from the north from mid-morning, but still the odd sunny spell. Feeling warm. Maximum temperature 16 deg C (61 deg F).

Outlook for Thursday to Saturday:
Fine and dry throughout, with plenty of sunny spells and fair-weather cloud. However, brisk winds are likely, with gales in exposed locations. Temperatures close to average, but some overnight frosts.
